Lifeline Companion Services – California HCO# 194700041; has met and/or exceeds the stringent standards set by the Home Care Standards Bureau; becomes one of over 150 A+ Certified agencies in US.

Los Angeles, California — January 25, 2024 — The Home Care Standards Bureau continues to recognize Lifeline Companion Services as among a distinguished national group of agencies to be awarded an A+ Certification from the Home Care Standards Bureau.

The Home Care Standards Bureau awards A+ Certification only to home care agencies that meet and adhere to a stringent code of standards and ethics. These standards require agencies to be fully insured and licensed, perform thorough background checks and provide comprehensive training for all their caregivers. Agencies must also provide services to families in a fair and transparent manner, providing care with dignity and compassion. Once achieved, A+ Certified agencies submit to regular audits to ensure that all HCSB standards are being maintained.

Lifeline Companion Services is a non-medical home care agency offering the highest quality personal care allowing clients to remain in their own homes. Lifeline Companion Services has been among a select group of HCSB A+ Certified agencies in the United States since 2021.

The Home Care Standards Bureau was created as a service to people seeking home care. Often times, non-medical home care agencies aren't required to meet any state regulations and very few federal regulations. David Fraser, president of The Home Care Standards Bureau, says, "Each of our agencies is held to the highest standards in the industry. I am proud to say Lifeline Companion Services has been awarded the prestigious HCSB A+ Certification, making it one of an elite class of home care agencies in the US."
